

Evaluation criteria for the admission exam to the PhD programme in Public Law (40th cycle)

The research project will be evaluated according to the following assessment grid:

Research project (max 20 points)

Candidates must submit a research project that they intend to carry out during the three-year PhD program, which will be evaluated by the Selection Committee for admission to the written test. The project must have a minimum length of 25,000 characters and a maximum of 35,000 characters (including spaces, punctuation and bibliography), written in Italian and including an index and bibliography (with bibliographic references also international), must indicate the reference subject in the course curricula doctoral degree (administrative law, constitutional law and general public law, criminal law and procedure; international and european law; law and economics). The evaluation of the research project is carried out according to the following parameters: (i) Relevance of the research project. The project is required to account for the scientific elaboration on the chosen research topic, highlighting the main problems that it poses. Particular attention is required regarding comparative law and the possible supranational and international relevance of the research topic. (ii) Structuring of the research project. The structure of the project must unfold according to internally coherent lines and linked arguments, also through the illustration of the chosen methodological approach. Structuring in chapters or even in paragraphs is not strictly required in the presentation of the project. Projects that do not meet the minimum length of 25,000 characters and a maximum of 35,000 characters (including spaces, punctuation and bibliography) will be excluded. The name of the candidate or other identifying marks (like background images or watermarks) must not appear on the title page, but only the university registration number, the curriculum for which you want to compete, the title of the project, strictly in PDF version, under penalty of exclusion.

Candidates who have obtained a minimum grade of 14/20 are admitted to the written test.
