Evaluation criteria for the admission to the PhD course in "ARCHAEOLOGY" (40th cycle)

The titles will be evaluated on the basis of the following evaluation grid:

Titles (max 60 points)

1. University final degree mark (max 5 points)

Mark	Points
110, 110 cum laude	5
109 -108	4
107 -106	3
105 -104	2
103 -102	1
<102	0

Students who will defend their thesis before the date established for the evaluation of qualifications are required to communicate to the PhD Programme Coordinator or to the President of the Commission the grade obtained in their degree, while for those who will defend the thesis after the date established for the evaluation of qualifications, but before October 31, 2024, the grid in point 1 is replaced by the following.

Average	Points
29 -30	5
28 – 28.99	4
27 – 27.99	3
26 – 26.99	2
25 – 25.99	1
<25	0

2. Publications (max 7 points)

Type	Points
Monographs	max 3 points each
Papers, conference proceedings, book chapter	max 1 points each

The total will be divided by the number of years (or fractions of a year) between the date of the master's degree and the Application deadline.

3. Research experiences (max 3 points)

Type	Points
Scholarship, research grants, etc.	1
Documented research collaboration	1
Postgraduate courses	1

4. Research project (max 45 points)

For the selection to the PhD Archaeology Course, each candidate must submit a project that assess propensity for research and ability to organize different phases of the project. The project must not exceed the maximum length of 12,000 characters (notes and spaces included), plus the bibliography.

In particular, will be evaluated:
- Quality and originality (15 points)
- Position in the national and international scientific framework (10 points)
- Project feasibility (10 points)
- Relevance of the project with the chosen curriculum (10 points)

The evaluation of titles, including the research project, is binding for the admission to the written test. Candidates who have obtained less than 40/60 points will not be admitted to the written test.