

ADDITIONAL CALL for the 39th cycle of the PhD Course in “Mathematical Models for Engineering, Electromagnetics and Nanosciences”: Evaluation criteria

The final ranking will follow from the assessment of qualifications and research project. The maximum is 80 points; the candidate must reach at least 41 points to be included in the final ranking.

- Curriculum Vitae et Studiorum: maximum 20 points; the Committee will evaluate the candidate's qualifications, with particular attention to their relevance with respect to the specific project of the fellowship.
- Publications: maximum 10 points; only products relevant to the research topics of the specific project of the fellowship will be evaluated.
- Recommendation letters of experts not belonging to the Board of Professors of the PhD course: maximum 20 points; the Committee will evaluate content and motivations of the experts' assessments.
- Research project: maximum 30 points; the Committee will evaluate its pertinence with respect to the specific project of the fellowship, setting, originality, clarity, goals, and feasibility.