

Evaluation criteria for the Entrance exam at the PhD in Structural and Geotechnical Engineering (XXXVII cycle) Titles and oral test will be evaluated according to the following evaluation grid:

Test will be evaluated according to the following evaluation grid:

1. Titles (maximum 30 points)

1.1 Graduation grade (master, two years specialistic or one-cycle – up to 10 points)

Note: in case of applicants with foreign evaluation marks, the Evaluation Committee will establish the proper correspondence.

1.2 Evaluation of the Curriculum and motivations to undertake the doctoral path (up to 15 points)

Evaluation of the Curriculum based on consistency with the objectives of the Doctoral Course, quality of profile outlined.

Clarity and completeness in the description of motivations and expectations in relation to the experience of the Doctorate

1.3 Publications (up to 5 points)

2. Oral test (maximum 70 points)

Fundamental topics of Solids and Structural Mechanics, Structural Engineering or Geotechnical Engineering (depending on the resume selected by the candidate)

Discussion of issues relating to the candidate's research interests and master's thesis;

Test is considered passed with a minimum score of 60/100