

Interview (max 80 points)

During the interview, the candidate must present a research project to demonstrate clear abilities to design, organize and develop the scientific research in total autonomy. This project, which must be submitted by candidates in order to take part to the call, will not be considered compulsory for the research activity of winner participants.

During the interview aspects related to the curriculum, the research project and the main topics of the PhD. course will be discussed:

Description	Points
Discussion about the research project	20
Basic knowledge of molecular/cell biology and genetics/medical genetics	30
Discussion about the curriculum, previous experience, and technical skills	25
Foreign language	5

The minimum resulting score valid for the admission is 50/80