The outcome of 'smart working' policies on cultural workers in the Italian Public Sector

[2023]

Iannace, Iannace, Pane(2023). The outcome of 'smart working' policies on cultural workers. SINAPPSI

This work focuses on the impact of smart working applied to cultural operators working in sites located in the South of Italy, and in rural and inner areas. Even before the Covid-19 pandemic, work had been undergoing radical changes, in what we can call a 'smart' and digital turn. We decided to focus on how the Italian government and the literature have defined and addressed the terminology of 'smart working', observing its application - with an eye on the de-spatialisation of workplaces themselves.

Evaluation of research infrastructures in the Social Sciences and Humanities field. A proposal for a new approach

[2023]

D.E. Iannace (2023), [Title], DISSE Working Papers, n. 18/2023

The article is the theoretical framework of the doctoral research. It focuses on the literature reviews and the conceptualization of the evaluation of SSH (Social Sciences and Humanities) field and its relative RIs (Research Infrastructures). Other than presenting the field, it opened the different possibilities for evaluating RIs in a new context still unexplored

Dirigere l'innovazione, la sfida dell'Unione

[2022]

Iannace D.E. (2022). Dirigere l'innovazione, la sfida dell'Unione. Eurobull.it

The article focuses on the new role of the European Union as innovator hub and stakeholder. Starting from the new needs of the scientific community, the article traces a line pointing toward the new investments of the European Union in research infrastructures - i.e., ESFRI - and the possible outcomes of this strategy for the EU and its member states.

Give Back: idee per le aree interne

[2022]

Iannace D.E. (2022). Give Back: idee per le aree interne. Pandora Rivista

The article focuses on "Give Back", an Erasmus-sponsored project which led to a Summer School in Castelvetere sul Calore (AV). The summer school, topic of the article itself, was centered around how it was possible to reinstate the competences of youths acquired outside the Italian Inner Areas and bring them back on these peculiar geographical regions.

Being young in Europe. Which future?

[2021]

Iannace D.E. and Striani D. (2021). Being young in Europe. Which future?. The Ventotene Lighthouse

Written together with Debora Striani. The article is focused on the analysis of the results of several interviews conducted by the team of "Eurobull". The main goal was to discover the main attitudes and perceptions of young Italian citizens toward the EU and the challenges of the near-future.

Intervista a Pawel Zerka

[2021]

Iannace D.E. (2021). Intervista a Pawel Zerka. Eurobull.it

An interview with Pawel Zerka, researcher of the "European Council for Foreign Relations" (ECFR). The focus of the interview was the work conducted by the European Union to contrast the pandemic of COVID-19 and its consequences. Not only, the interview also affronted the problem of the state of right in Hungary and Poland and the future of the Union.

American swarms: lo sviluppo americano di sciame di droni ad uso militare
