

1st Ventotene Workshop in Macroeconomics

Sailing the Macro

Sapienza University's 1st Sailing the Macro Workshop will take place on the Island of Ventotene on September 16-18, 2021. The aim of this three-day workshop is to bring together researchers in the field of theoretical and applied macroeconomics to promote and discuss their current works and ideas. The workshop is organized by Sapienza University's Ph.D. in Economics (Department of Economics and Law).

Invited Speakers

Salvatore Nisticò (Sapienza University), Giorgio Primiceri (Northwestern University), Giuseppe Ragusa (University of Pisa)

Call for papers and participation

Researchers are encouraged to submit both applied and theoretical contributions in dynamic macroeconomics. The submission deadline is 3:00 pm CET on July 15th, 2021. Papers, drafts or extended abstracts should be sent to francescos.lucidi@uniroma1.it. Authors of accepted works will be notified by July 20th, 2021. In case you want to attend the workshop, you can register by sending an email to martam.pisa@uniroma1.it.

Programme

The morning sessions will take place from 9.00 am until around 1:00 pm. Presentations will last 30 minutes, followed by a 10 minutes Q&A session. Participants will be involved in sailing courses and activities, organized during the afternoons by the Ventotene Sailing School – Lega Navale Italiana. For organizational details, please visit the workshop website.

Workshop Organizers

Francesco Simone Lucidi, Massimiliano Tancioni, Marta Maria Pisa.

SAPIENZA
UNIVERSITÀ DI ROMA