RESEARCH INTERESTS

The interaction between monetary and fiscal policy, macroeconomics, applied macroeconomics.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Current JULY 2023	Research Assistant to Prof. Giuli Roma Tre University, Department of Economics Research assistant for a paper with Prof. Giuli, Prof. Tancioni and Prof. Patella. The analysis focuses on the effect of exogenous shocks in different monetary and fiscal policy regimes within the European Union. I developed a two-country Markov-switching DSGE model and assisted in the empirical estimation of the model.
DECEMBER 2023	Teaching Assistant Roma Tre University, Department of Economics I taught the last two lectures of the course "Advanced Macroeconomics" (master's level) with Prof. Giuli, explaining the fiscal theory of price level, looking at both an empirical application through SVAR model and with a theoretical one through an extended DSGE model. Dates: December 13 and 15, 2023.
JANUARY 2023- NOVEMBER 2023	Tutor of Statistics Roma Tre University, department of Economia Aziendale Tutor for the bachelor's degree statistics exam. I have conducted practical classroom lectures with students, individual meetings and didactic support for exams.

CONFERENCES

NOVEMBER 2021 | For a New Globalization-Workshop by Feltrinelli Foundation, Milan
After being selected from various researchers and master students, I attended the workshop organized by Feltrinelli, where scholars from various fields discussed the future of globalization and the policies to be put in place. My talk focused on the European minimum wage.

SEPTEMBER 2021 | Festival della Cultura del Lavoro, Imola
I have been invited to discuss unemployment and basic income in Italy.

2017 AND 2018 | International Journalism Festival, Perugia

PUBLICATIONS

2023 | Oil shock in different monetary and fiscal regimes (in progress)
Giuli, F., Guerriero A., Ionta S.
Paper (in progress) based on my master's thesis, in which we attempt to explain empirically and theoretically the effect of an oil price shock on the European economy in 2023. The paper analyzes the transmission of the shock under different monetary and fiscal policy regimes.

2022 | For a New Globalization
