

ABOUT ME

Graduated with honours law student at the University of Roma La Sapienza and Erasmus student at Maastricht University. At the present moment, I am based in Rome. My graduation thesis was about the legal framework of crypto-assets, especially inside the European Union due to the Markets in Crypto-Assets Regulation.

Currently, I am a trainee lawyer, enrolled at the "Ordine degli Avvocati di Roma" by the law firm Studio Internazionale, which is a member of the Alliot Group.

My focus is on business law, law of economics, private law, and civil law, but also from a public law perspective. I am looking for an abroad working experience, to best develop my relationship skills and to widen my horizons.

Sport and traveling enthusiast.

Recently graduated law student of master degree in law by Rome University La Sapienza.

I studied five years law at La Sapienza, including one semester of Exchange at the Maastricht University, and i have done all my exams. Now i am working on my graduation thesis about the legal framework of crypto-assets that i will defend in October at my graduation day. I am looking forward to stimulating working opportunities to challenge myself in a new professional working after these 5 years of study. It was a long, important and beautiful journey, but now that i am graduating in my master of law it's time to start something new.

Erasmus student by Maastricht University Maastricht University

Erasmus student by the law faculty of the Maastricht University. All courses and exams taken in English. In particular, i took the following courses and exams: Comparative Property Law, European Tort Law, Private International Law, Law in Europe: from Gaius until the EU.

I really enjoyed the opportunity to experience a different learning method and the opportunity to challenge my ability to adapt to a new social and cultural way of living the life. I think i was succesful on both these experiences and that they really enriched me, humanly and professionally speaking.
