

Sara Del Ciello

Ph.D. student in Socio-Economic and Statistical Studies at Sapienza University of Rome;

Administrative Analyst, Ministry of Economy and Finance (Rome).

sara.delciello@uniroma1.it

RESEARCH INTERESTS

I am a Ph.D. student in Socio-Economic and Statistical Studies with research interests in income and wealth inequality, intergenerational mobility, and the distributional effects of public policies

EDUCATION

Ph.D. in Socio-Economic and Statistical Studies — Sapienza University of Rome November 2025 - Present
Rome, Italy

Research fields: Inequality; Intergenerational mobility; Public Economics.

Coursework: Microeconomics, Macroeconomics, Econometrics, Spatial Data, Methods of evaluation and Microeconometrics.

Postgraduate Master in Public Economics — Sapienza University of Rome 2023 — 2024
Rome, Italy

Final grade: 110/110 cum laude

Thesis Title: Improving the Energy Efficiency of Residential Buildings in Italy: How Unfair Can the Transition Be?

Coursework: Microeconomics, Macroeconomics, Public Finance, Management of Public Administrations, Descriptive and Inferential Statistics.

Master's in Applied Social Sciences — Sapienza University of Rome 2017 — 2019
Rome, Italy

Final grade: 110/110 cum laude

Thesis Title: Empirical Insights into Corporate Welfare: Opportunities and Challenges. The Iren Group Case Study.

Erasmus+ Programme — Université Libre de Bruxelles (ULB), Brussels, Belgium January 2017 – June 2017

Bachelor's in Sociology — Sapienza University of Rome 2012 — 2016
Rome, Italy

Final grade: 103/110

Thesis Title: Second-Welfare Initiatives in Italy: Innovation Engine or Sign of Welfare State Retrenchment?

Erasmus+ Programme — Université de Lille 1, Lille, France September 2014 – July 2015

WORK EXPERIENCE

Administrative Analyst — Ministry of Economy and Finance September 2023 — Present
State General Accounting Department – Research Service
Rome, Italy

- Conduct analytical and regulatory work on the monitoring of public sector commercial debt and payment delays.
- Draft statistical reports and policy briefs to support evidence-based decision-making in public finance management.
- Pre legislative support and legal insights on the governance of public sector commercial debt.

Administrative Officer — Municipality of Formello December 2022 — September 2023
Formello, Italy

- Drafted official administrative acts in compliance with local governance regulations.
- Oversaw budget management and ensured proper delivery of public services.
- Implemented new services and procedures to improve administrative efficiency.

Project manager — Fondazione Angelo Frammartino ONLUS May 2021 — January 2023
Rome, Italy

- Promoted and coordinated educational activities as part of programmes funded by public administrations.
- Provided organisational support to project management and administrative tasks.
- Facilitated coordination among project partners and workshops on social inclusion and human rights.
- Monitored and managed the project's budget, ensuring compliance with funding guidelines.

HR Recruitment Specialist (Logistics Sector) — Gi Group Spa

September 2019 — September 2020

- Managed the full recruitment cycle for operational staff in a multinational environment.
- Trained and coordinated a team dedicated to candidate sourcing and selection.

Conferences, Summer Schools, and Seminars

InRome Summer Meeting (2nd edition)

May 15–16, 2025

Roma Tre University, Rome, Italy

*“Inequality, Taxation, and the Environment”SESS Ph.D. Seminar

January 27, 2026

Sapienza University of Rome

“Measuring Intersectional Disadvantage” (with K. Bosmans and E. Ozturk) presented by Domenico Moramarco (University of Bari and Université Libre de Bruxelles).Workshop on Wage Inequality in Italy

January 28, 2026

Fondazione Tor Vergata – Faculty of Economics, Rome, Italy

*Workshop on wage inequality, labour income distribution, career dynamics, and gender gaps in Italy.Inequality in Rome Seminar

March 25, 2026

Roma Tre University, Rome, Italy

“From Fragile Careers to Inadequate Pensions: A Cohort Comparison of Career Dynamics in Italy's NDC System” presented by Michele Raitano (Sapienza University of Rome).INEQ Seminar

March 26, 2026

Sapienza University of Rome, Rome, Italy

“Capital and Labor Income Mobility” presented by Roberto Iacono (Norwegian University of Science and Technology – NTNU).LANGUAGES

Italian: Mother tongue

English: C1

French: C1

COMPUTER SKILLS

- Statistical software: R, Stata
- LaTeX, Microsoft Office

Student Collaboration Grants

Student Orientation & Tutoring Grant, Sapienza University of Rome

2018

Library Assistantship, Sapienza University of Rome

2014

GENERAL SKILLS

- Able to work independently and manage multiple priorities, with a strong focus on meeting deadlines and ensuring institutional compliance
- Experienced in working in multidisciplinary teams and facilitating dialogue between public institutions, non-profit organisations and project partners
- Proven ability to mediate between different perspectives and promote shared solutions in complex regulatory and administrative contexts
- Strong interpersonal and communication skills