

CURRICULUM VITAE ET STUDIORUM

Chiara Arruzzoli

EDUCATION AND TRAINING:

- 2022 – ongoing PhD Student in Public, Comparative and International Law - Curriculum Comparative and Italian Constitutional Law and Political Institutions, Sapienza University of Rome
Research: The Italian nudge regulation: individual freedoms, transparency and proportion of public administration's activities
- 2020 – 2023 Advanced Legal Course, Greco Pittella School, Rome
- 2018 Master Degree in Law (LMG-01), Roma Tre University
Thesis: Civil liability of Magistrates
- 2012 High School Diploma, Bertrand Russell High School, Rome

WORKING EXPERIENCES:

- 2023 – 2024 (2 mesi) Contract for the reasoned and systematised collection of legislative and case-law material on the constitutional principle of good performance as a means of protecting rights and legitimate interests, in connection with the project “The essential and competitive role of specialised courts and alternative dispute resolution mechanisms in financial law as for the attainment of social desirable levels of public and private enforcement. Lessons from history in administrative and business law and the future of judicial review in European financial law in light of European and national fundamental rights” (PRIN 2017), Sapienza University of Rome, Department of Political Science
- 2021 – ongoing Lawyer, M&Ps Law Firm, Rome (registered on the Rome Bar Associations from December 16 2021)
- 2019 – 2020 Traineeship at the Tribunale Ordinario di Latina, Latin

2018 – 2020 Trainee-Lawyer, M&Ps Law Firm, Rome

PUBLICATIONS:

2023 Review of R. H. Thaler e C. R. Sunstein, Nudge. The Gentle Push. The Final Edition, Milan, Feltrinelli, 2022, pp. 312, Nomos (2/2023)

2023 Review of C. Iannello, The interpretatio abrogans of Article 32 of the Constitution. Mandatory vaccination for SARS-CoV-2 and the referral orders to the Constitutional Court, Naples, Editoriale Scientifica, 2022, pp. 133, Nomos (1/2023)

CONFERENCE PAPERS:

2023 Conference paper at the event “ICON-S Italy – 4th Annual Conference” titled: “Permanent Committees” for the panel: “One Year with Reduced Ranks: The XIX Legislature (and the Reduction of the Number of Parliamentarians) put to the Test”, Bocconi University, Milan

2023 Conference paper at the event “Democracy, Participation, Decision-Making Procedures” (University of Palermo) titled: “From Lobbying to Nudging: Two Tools in Search of Legislation”, University of Palermo