Sapienza’s Ph.D. Schools and International Courses

Call for Applications to Fellowships and Admission of Incoming Students - Academic Year 2022/2023

1. Announcement

“Sapienza” University of Rome offers 29 three-year-full-time postgraduate PhD positions with fellowship for attaining the degree of “Dottore di Ricerca” (PhD) in one of the PhD programmes listed in Appendix. Each fellowship amounts to € 19,800.00 per year; this amount includes national insurance contributions (INPS) that fellowship recipients are required to pay.

The fellowship does not cover any possible annual entrance fee and does not increase for research periods spent abroad.

The PhD programme lasts three years. At the end of the first and second years of attendance, students will be evaluated as proficient according to the rules of the PhD programmes.

2. Admission Requirements

Applications are open to candidates holding any academic qualification (or graduands who will obtain the degree by October 31st, 2022) obtained by a non-Italian institution, suitable for the access to PhD programmes. The Academic Board of the PhD course will check that each applicant’s qualifications are equivalent to the relevant Italian degree (for the sole purpose of this competition).

3. Selection and admissions

The applications will be selected in two steps:
1. Qualifications assessment: the applications will be evaluated on the basis of the documents listed in art. 5.2.
2. An oral interview, following the evaluation by qualification, in a video conferencing in order to achieve a better evaluation of their aptitude for research. Interview will concern the presentation of a Research Project and critical discussion of its scientific interest, innovation and feasibility.

4. Attainment of PhD

Students must attend the courses and seminars and other activities offered by their PhD programme, pass the related examinations and prepare a PhD dissertation, which must have original results. The PhD title is obtained at the end of the third year after the candidate’s dissertation is complete and is positively evaluated by an independent jury appointed by the Rector.

5. Applications and Deadline

To submit the application candidates should:
5.1 Sign in with a valid email address to http://phd.uniroma1.it/fellowship

5.2 Complete the application form and provide all the following documents:
• Copy of identity card or passport;
• Curriculum vitae et studiorum;
• Copy of the qualification degree and list of exams with marks;
• Proposal of a research project (not exceeding 8,000 characters);
• Motivation letter (brief statement explaining his/her PhD programme choice and the candidate’s scientific interests);
• Two letters of recommendation by university professors or eminent researchers/experts of equivalent status;
• List of publications.

Once signed in, candidates can complete the application form in more than one step. When all the requested fields are filled out and all required documents are uploaded, candidates can finally submit the form.

After submission, NO further modification to the form will be possible.

All documents must be written in English and uploaded in PDF format. The maximum size for each document is 5 MB (5120 KBytes). No other format will be accepted.

The PhD Office reserves the right to verify the authenticity of the declarations submitted in the application.

The deadline for submission of the application and the supporting documents listed above is May 30th, 2022 at 2.00 p.m. (Italian time).

The University may exclude at any time candidates lacking admission requirements.

6. General Rules

Doctorate fellowships are incompatible with any other fellowship granted by Italian or International Institutions. Fellowships cannot be awarded to candidates who have already benefited (either entirely or partially) from a similar grant provided by an Italian or International Institution to attend a PhD programme.

Unless specific notice on the programmes’ websites, lessons may be held both in Italian and in English.

7. Operational Indications

The short list of candidates admitted to the interview will be published on the official website: https://www.uniroma1.it/it/pagina/dottorati-di-ricerca by June 17th, 2022.

The list of winners, and of those who may be considered as eligible if places become available, will be published on the official website: https://www.uniroma1.it/it/pagina/dottorati-di-ricerca by July 5th, 2022.

Successful applicants will find the indication of the deadline for accepting the fellowship on the above-mentioned winners list.

Further instructions to complete the enrolment for the academic year 2022/2023 will be emailed only to the winners.

The list of the required documents will be communicated via email to the winner candidates to finalize the enrollment.
